Bass fishing's Junior World Champion to be crowned Aug. 1

National Guard Junior World Championship to be held in conjunction with Forrest Wood Cup in Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH —Daily weigh-ins will be held at Kittanning Riverfront Park, and will be streamed live to fans around the world watching FLW Live on FLWOutdoors.com. All junior anglers will walk across the main stage to be recognized during the Saturday weigh-in of the Forrest Wood Cup in Mellon Arena.

The TBF National Guard Junior World Championship will feature youth anglers from as many as 41 states fishing for $30,000 in scholarships and prizes. Each participating state will be represented by two junior anglers: one in the 11 to 14 age bracket and another in the 15 to 18 age bracket, both of whom will receive travel assistance to Pittsburgh. Every youth angler will also be treated to a world championship-caliber pizza party served up by the National Guard pro team and featuring high-energy games, entertainment and sponsor prizes.
